7.2 – Best Practices

7.2.1 – Describe at least two institutional best practices

1. Participatory Learning: The College aims at fully integrating the learners in the dynamics of teaching-learning process in order that such an inclusive approach would foster academic growth. Participatory learning which the college prioritizes does not replace the traditional top-down approach altogether. What it aims at is a greater degree of flexibility afforded to learners to choose subjects of their choice, which, in the main, extends having their leeway in suggesting introduction of preferred subjects. 2. Innovative Tutor-ward Relationship: Main objective to ensure good relationship between teachers and students. This makes the students interact freely with their teachers. Teachers hear the grievances of the students and immediately address those in the best possible manner. This practice helps the students orientate themselves in the proper academic direction and inculcates values in the students.

7.3 – Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 – Provide the details of the performance of the institution in one area distinctive to its vision, priority and thrust in not more than 500 words

The college has a broad mission to develop all aspects of the human resource. To develop a complete student, their participation in extracurricular activities is a bare necessity. Therefore the institution is committed to attract students for participating in various extracurricular activities by ensuring consistent encouragement and motivation. The necessary facilities are provided and adequate funds are allotted. A wide and diversified range of extracurricular activities like sports, indoor games, NCC, NSS, YRC, Scout, cultural association and dramatic society exist on the campus, meeting a variety of student interests. The college focuses on extracurricular activities to ensure all-round development of the students. Along with academics, students are encouraged to participate and involve in activities within the college, state and national level. The students actively prepare items for zonal, Interschool and National Youth Festivals.
